House Tour of Trenton's Hiltonia Neighborhood

May 10, 2014

Noon to 5 pm

Hiltonia, one of Trenton's largest tracts of residential single family and townhouse homes, will host a house tour on Saturday, May 10, 2014 from noon to 5 p.m. This is the second time the homeowners of the expansive and eclectic 91 year old West Ward neighborhood will open their homes to the public.

The tour will feature a variety of homes situated on tree-lined avenues bordering the Delaware and Raritan Canal State Park and Frederick Law Olmsted-designed Cadwalader Park. A special feature of this year's tour will be an open house at Ellarslie Mansion in Cadwalader Park. The centerpiece of the park, Ellarslie Mansion is an Italianate villa built in 1848 that now houses the Trenton City Museum. The museum's many collections will be open to view during the tour. Tickets cost $15 in advance and $20 the day of the event. They can be purchased at www.hiltoniahousetour.org or advance ticket locations:
